

Child's Dress

This particular dress was worn by Harriet Vickers (EC graduate 1983-1985) during the May Day Parade (1975), as it was customary for young girls to dress in this fashion and serve as train bearer for the May Day Queen. Harriet's dress was made by her mother (Carol Vickers [1956-1958]). The dress was preserved and donated to the Memorabilia Room Collection by the Ovid Vickers Family. The dress was framed by Glenda of Glenda Weaver's Frame Shop in Decatur, MS.
